The Illinois Chamber's Reaction to Mayor-Elect Brandon Johnson's Address

The Illinois business community stands ready to work with Mayor-Elect Johnson to achieve our shared goals of a vibrant Chicago.

We look forward to working with Johnson on developing specific proposals for job growth and economic development within the state. This can be achieved through bipartisan cooperation that balances the needs of the citizens of Chicago with measures promoting a strong business climate, enhancing the city's role as an economic engine that is so important to the prosperity of the state of Illinois.
