PRIVACY POLICY AND HARASSMENT

Privacy Policy

The Illinois Chamber of Commerce understands that privacy is important and we want you to know what types of personal information we collect through this site, how we use it and whether it is shared with any unaffiliated third parties for marketing purposes. Please refer to this policy as needed to check for any changes in our current privacy practices.

The Illinois Chamber of Commerce only collects personal information that you voluntarily submit to this site. We only use that information for the purpose for which it was submitted. We do not share your information with any unaffiliated third parties. We may only use your information for marketing purposes if you ask or provide permission to be added to the mailing list to receive our email newsletters.

The Illinois Chamber of Commerce is committed to protecting the security of information received through our online store. In order to try to avert unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy and assure the appropriate use of information, we have established the appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to shield and secure the information we collect online.

Illinois Chamber of Commerce strives to create and maintain a work environment in which people are treated with dignity, decency and respect. The environment of the company should be characterized by mutual trust and the absence of intimidation, oppression and exploitation. Illinois Chamber of Commerce will not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment of any kind. Through enforcement of this policy and by education of employees, Illinois Chamber of Commerce will seek to prevent, correct and discipline behavior that violates this policy.
