ILLINOIS NEEDS TARGETED STRATEGY ON TRADE

“The state’s top business group was less enthusiastic. The Illinois Chamber of Commerce urged the president to ‘consider not only the new steel jobs he celebrates today, but the potential job losses ...’”

—Chicago Tribune

Thursday, July 26, President Trump visited Granite City to discuss steel and aluminum tariffs at the reopening of a U.S. steel plant. The Illinois Chamber of Commerce was deemed “the state's top business group” by the Chicago Tribune and urged the president to “consider not only the new steel jobs he celebrates today, but the potential job losses and jobs that never get created as a result of the tariff battle now underway with our trading partners.” Read the Illinois Chamber’s full statement here and the Chicago Tribune article on the matter here.

NAVIGATING CYBER THREATS KEY TO BIZ SUCCESS

On July 24, the Illinois Chamber of Commerce partnered with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce to hold a cybersecurity conference in Chicago. Increasingly so, in business, understanding cybersecurity is crucial to success. Collaboration and communication between government entities and the private sector is essential to effectively combating cyber threats. This event brought together public and private entities to discuss policy and best practices in cybersecurity to help businesses be prepared for whatever the future brings for businesses of all sizes. We thank all of the speakers and sponsors of the event that made it a success.

DATA CENTERS BOOST ECONOMY

Illinois Chamber of Commerce’s Vice President of Policy Benjamin Brockschmidt spoke with the Chicago Tribune on data centers earlier this month. “Data centers are economically beneficial to the areas where they locate, adding construction and contracting jobs, plus permanent positions at the facilities, he said. They also produce local infrastructure improvements such as power and telecommunications access, which can benefit other businesses in the area.” Read the entire news coverage here.

STAATS DECRYPTS GRADUATED INCOME TAXES

In Illinois CPA Society Insight Magazine Illinois Chamber’s Executive Director of the Tax Institute Keith Staats helps decode the math behind the proposed graduated income tax plans. Staats estimates “the proponents of graduated income tax rates are mistaken if they think they can solve state spending imbalances without taxing the middle class.” Read the full column here.
In the month of July, we spoke to radio, television, and print media outlets, delivering pro-business values to audiences across Illinois. Below is a selection of stories where the Chamber has advocated its position on a variety of topics.
