

EXPORTS CONFERENCE | NOVEMBER 5, 2026

After a brief pause during the pandemic, we are excited to announce the return of the Annual Exports Conference, hosted by the Illinois Chamber's International Council. This half-day program, followed by a networking reception, will bring together industry leaders, exporters, and trade experts to explore the latest trends and opportunities in global commerce.

In today's environment, U.S. tariff policies continue to pose significant challenges for exporters, influencing supply chains, pricing strategies, and competitiveness in key markets. Understanding these dynamics—and how they impact Illinois businesses—is critical for navigating global trade successfully.

Conference Highlights:

- Keynote Address on the current state of global trade, including the implications of U.S. tariff policy and its ripple effects across international markets.
- Panel Discussions on:
 - ◀ Illinois' Agricultural Sector, in recognition of the International Year of Women Farmers.
 - ◀ The USMCA and the future of the North American market.
 - ◀ Emerging market opportunities for Illinois exporters in ASEAN, LATAM, and the EU.

Don't miss this chance to reconnect, gain insights, and position your business for success in the evolving global marketplace
