Where Illinois Shapes Global Food and Trade Leadership

The Illinois Chamber of Commerce invites leading organizations to participate in a flagship executive convening at the intersection of:

- Global agriculture
- Food manufacturing
- Supply chain transformation
- International trade policy

Hosted at McDonald's Headquarters, this high-level forum brings together corporate executives, federal leaders, and agricultural stakeholders to advance Illinois' role as a global export leader.

A curated, high-impact audience of:

- Fortune 500 executives and senior decision-makers
- Agricultural producers and commodity leaders
- Export-oriented manufacturers and scaled innovators from across the state
- Export-ready SMEs and high-growth service exporters
- Federal agencies (USDA, U.S. Commercial Service)
- Trade, logistics, finance, and legal experts
- Diplomatic Leaders from key markets for Illinois exporters
